HANGS ON LIVE WIRE

George Neubauer Held Fast by

Deadly Current.

While upon a telephone pole, 35 feet from the ground yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, George Neubauer, 33, of Cottage Grove avenue, came in contact with a high tension wire and was held fast to the pole, while volts of electricity passed through his body. He may die. The accident occurred at the corner of Walnut and Page streets.

With the fire shooting from his body, Neubauer hung unconscious at the top of the pole, until Roy Miller, a fellow lineman, climbed up and cut the wire, allowing the victim's body to drop to the ground. Neubauer was burned most seriously about the neck, while it is believed he suffered internal injuries in the fall. Dr. Wright was soon on the scene and dressed the man's injuries temporarily until he could be removed to his home.—Toledo Times.

THE SAN JOSE SCALE.

Here is a sure cure for that pest known as the San Jose Scale: As soon as the leaves fall, the trees should be closely pruned, saw out every limb that can be spared and cut out the smaller limbs and twigs until the tree looks thin so that the spray can enter the sun afterwards. Do not spray with the leaves on. Dissolve one pound of crushed caustic soda (78 per cent) in every six gallons of water. Spray when there is no wind. Repeat the spraying after a rain or every two or three weeks with no rain. No spraying should be done after March 1st.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulents is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

SEWAGE DISPOSAL.

The city of Bowling Green has discovered that it is necessary to have a sewage disposal plant, and Chief Engineer Hanson of the State Board of Health was consulting with a committee of the council concerning a recent order of the State Board. It is estimated that the plant will cost $30,000. Council passed a resolution and will submit to the voters of Bowling Green the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $25,000 to build the plant.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

On Friday evening last, A. C. Fuller and wife gave a musical treat to a number of friends, the occasion being in honor of Mr. Fuller's nephew, Mr. Bert Brown, and his mother, of Chicago.

Mr. Brown, who is a solo cornetist with Arthur Pryor's band has just closed the season at Asbury Park. He made a brief visit at his home in Chicago and stopped over here for a brief visit prior to going to New York City for a few weeks' engagement. Mr. Brown favored the guests with several cornet solos for which he has become celebrated in the great music centers of this country. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman of Toledo, were among the guests and Mr. Hoffman sang several charming songs. Mrs. Mary Tyler-Hellman's piano solos and Mrs. Russell Williams' vocal solos were very enjoyable and the Fuller orchestra added several numbers to an evening's program which was greatly pleasing. Mrs. Fuller served dainty refreshments and the evening was a rare treat to all.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Two Maumee Boys Get Off on Easy Charge.

The most interesting case in the Common Pleas court last week was that of Ohio against Howard Henderson and Alva Kruger, two Maumee boys who were indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of robbery.

It will be remembered that one night in May last, John Hampton claimed to have been held up and robbed while crossing the Maumee river bridge. A few days later four boys were arrested charged with the crime. Two of the boys George Ulrich and Charles Woolie are said to have confessed that they with Howard Henderson and Alva Kruger were in the deal. Ulrich and Woolie have apparently been forgiven for their part in the crime, as they are enjoying liberty and have not been held to account for their part in the act, but Henderson and Kruger were placed in jail in Bowling Green and on Friday and Saturday were tried. The State was represented by Prosecutor Dunlap assisted by S. P. Harrison of North Baltimore, while L. M. Murphy of Maumee, represented Henderson. At the opening of trial, Mr. Murphy called the court's attention to the fact that young Kruger was not represented by an attorney and the Court immediately appointed Attorney Bowman to represent Kruger. Coming into the case without any opportunity for preparation, gave young Kruger's attorney but little chance to do justice to his client or himself, but the trial proceeded and at 7:15 p. m., the jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

"Not Guilty" was the verdict in the case of Della McCauley in which Della, aged 18, was indicted on the charge of enticing one Alice Greno aged 15, into a house of ill fame. Della was married when 13 years of age; her husband did not amount to much and the young girl went to live with her mother and step-father, who are exceedingly poor and ignorant people. The girl who is not very bright, "grew up" on the streets of North Baltimore and if she is not an angel her look of mental qualifications and her "bringing up" are probably the chief cause. The other girl is better looking and a brighter girl and the two were much together and when Della said to Alice—"come on; let's go down to Arcadia, and have a h—l of a time," Alice readily followed. They went to the home of David Ebright in Arcadia, in company with Ebright's son and remained there several days until Alice was taken away by the Marshal who was sent after her by the girl's mother. It was then that the crime of "enticing" was laid at Della's feet and it suddenly appeared that an innocent lamb had been shorn, and after much fuss and feathers the dirty mess was brought into court where the evidence plainly disclosed that the so-called house of ill fame, was but the miserable hovel of two very poor and ignorant people and that the "enticing" was nothing more than a hint which was readily followed as far as possible. It required only about 15 minutes for the jury to settle the case and say "not guilty."

Another criminal case that failed was that of the State against Wm. Friess on a charge of larceny. The case came over from Grand Rapids. John Stevens and his son Sylvester, operates a blacksmith shop over in Grand Rapids and its a jolly place to loaf about. The two men are industrious and good natured and its a place where there is always "something doing" so Wm. Friess, when not working, "loafed" in the village pocket book containing $50 or more. One day John Stevens lost his (Continued on Fourth Page.)

MODEL INSTITUTION

Presided Over by a Kind Hearted, Christian Man.

Dr. J. H. Leonard, Superintendent of the great Mansfield Reformatory has made a national reputation for himself in the way he handles his institution, says the Sentinel. He places the boys upon their honor, and in fact signs their bond for good behavior himself. It is the nation's model reformatory. Young persons convicted for first offence, and too old to go to the boys reform farm at Lancaster, are sent to this place. At present there are about one thousand inmates of the place. Dr. Leonard by his kind and humane ways leads many of these young men into better paths. His sympathies are with them as the following poem which he has written will show. It's worth reading to our boys:

OUR ONE THOUSAND.

One thousand cells,
One thousand souls,
One thousand names
On crime's sad rolls;
One thousand schemes
That "ganged alee,"
One thousand slaves
That might be free.

One thousand youths
That went astray,
One thousand homes
Where women pray;
One thousand dreams
That vanished are,
Or darkly dimmed
By prison bar.

One thousand terms
That end at last,
And all the clouds
Are overpast;
With purpose strong
To do the right
And shun the wrong.

May every hope
Fruition find
And time and fate
To them be kind,
As forth they go,
With flag unfurled
And valiant hearts,
Into the world.

And may they climb
From out the deep
And scale the heights.
However steep,
That stand between
This land of night
And that where shines
Eternal light.

THE OLYMPIA LADIES.

The Olympia Ladies' Quartette were at the Auditorium October 8th. They sang; they played; they read, and they delighted the audience. Not a single feature was introduced which did not show them to be artists of ability. The old negro melodies were given with all the peculiar charms of jubilee singers. Miss Brown proved herself a skillful violinist. She has also a rich, deep, profound voice, while Miss Underwood's high, clear, sustained tones were charmingly bird-like and beautiful.

The quartette were generous with their responses and their large audience showed enthusiastic appreciation. These charming Afro-American musicians will be welcome in Perrysburg should they ever come this way again.

Again the members of Post 51, G. A. R., are called to drape their hall and charter and mourn the loss of our esteemed comrade, Peter Witzler, late of Co. I, 111th O. V. V. I. Remembering him as a brave soldier, a good citizen, a faithful friend and a devout christian, be it Resolved, that while regretting his removal we bow in humble submission to the Divine Will, knowing that our loss is his gain. To his family we tender our earnest and sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

The Million Dollar Rubber Footwear

It costs the Mishawaka Woolen Mfg. Co. an extra $1,000,000 every year to make the famous "Ball-Band" Rubber Footwear supreme in quality. But they sell more by doing it. People demand it, once they know how good it is.

It stands for satisfactory Rubber Boots, Overshoes, Arctics and All-Knit Wool Boots. It means that you get your money's worth. It's not in the looks, but in the wear that "Ball-Band" goods excel. Try a pair in the style you like and learn the "Ball-Band" superiority.
